

DOWNTOWN A-FRAME SIGN GRANT

The Downtown A-Frame Sign Grant is available to businesses or property owners within the boundaries of the Longmont Downtown Development Authority (LDDA). This grant is a reimbursement with funds dispersed after the sign has been purchased by the applicant. The maximum grant is 50% of total sign board cost with a $100 maximum. Grant awards are contingent on available funds.

Downtown A-Frame Sign Terms & Conditions

- Sign design must follow Downtown Sign Design Standards and City Sign Code
- The LDDA will own the A-frame for 3 years and the business will own the message component of the sign
- If the business remains in downtown for 3 years, they will own the sign
- If the business relocates outside of downtown or closes within 3 years, the sign returns to the LDDA
- One A-frame sign allowed per street frontage for each building, except that multiple tenant buildings may be allowed one additional A-frame sign for buildings having more than 25 feet of street frontage
- Businesses without space for a monument sign on private property may display A-frame signs on public property year-round but only during business hours
- Sign should be located to minimize impacts to pedestrians, vehicles and maintenance equipment – signs should be at least 7 feet from other features (trees, light posts, etc.) on the public sidewalk.
- Application requires a Certificate of Compliance from the LDDA

The applicant is required to meet with the Executive Director or Downtown Specialist of the LDDA prior to applying for the grant in order to receive a Certificate of Compliance. The applicant must submit a completed application with the Certificate of Compliance.
