Katrina,

Hello. We are still working on the awning. Here is a possibility. I know you were concerned about a turquoise clashing with the guitars green awning, but there's is actually blue with stripes. The logo on the awning is not final. There won't be a white background and we want to stretch out the text. This gives you an idea of what it would look next to Jensen's. Below is how the logo will look. Let me know what you think. We'd like to present a grant to the LDDA this month.
