

The Firehouse Art Center is hosting our annual Day of the Dead exhibition from October 09 -November 03 featuring an altar made by local Casa de la Esperanza students and community members, alongside portraits of Longmont's loved ones. If you or someone you know is interested in submitting a portrait, please follow the guidelines below. Space is limited, submit your portrait today!

Opening Reception
Friday, Oct 11
[6-9 PM]

Submissions open – August 01, 2019
Submissions close – October 01, 2019
Portrait drop-off – October 05 & 06

Portraits can not have an outside frame dimension larger than 11x14, and must be ready-to-hang when dropped off at the gallery. We will accept all types of portraits: photos, drawings, paintings, black and white or color.

The Firehouse Art Center will require the following information:

1. Portrait owner info - Name, Address, Phone, and Email.
2. Portrait info - who is in the image?

Submit by sending a picture of your portrait and the above information to:
Brandy Coons at gallery@firehouseart.org

Portraits will be displayed alongside community-painted Catrinas, and featured during our Day of the Dead events: a downtown Fiesta, Procession, and Catrina Ball. Visit our facebook page or website for more information!
